

Cary Presbyterian Church Pastor Nominating Committee
October 21, 2019 Update

Your Pastor Nominating Committee is in the process of conducting initial interviews, while also reviewing the new Pastor Information Forms (PIFs) as they come in. We also have listened to sermons online and have read our candidates' church websites. Some candidates also have their own personal websites and/or blogs. All this information is considered when we meet and discern what is the best fit for our church. We listen intently to each other's perspectives and have had many thoughtful discussions. Please know that we continue to take this work very seriously.

In Christ's name,

Emma Anderson, David Bohm, Jeanne Bolick, Sherry Bradsher, Louis Lambe, Linda Oglesby and Matthew Simmons
